THE BRITISH BOMBS

Sent Flying Into Alexandria

Promptly at 7 O'clock this Morning.

Four Forts Completely Demolished and the Others Effectually Silenced.

The English Fleet Escape Serious Damage—Forty Englishmen Wounded.

The Bombardment to be Renewed To-morrow Morning—General News.

The Seat of War. (By Cable to the Sentinel.)

LONDON, July 11.—The Standard's correspondent on the Invincible telegraphs the following:

ALEXANDRIA, July 11, 9:10.—The attack on the fort has now been kept up two hours. Smoke hangs over the town along the line of shore batteries and among the ships, and it is difficult to see what damage has been done. It is certain, however, that the enemy has suffered very heavily. Fort Marsa Elkanat has been blown up by the fire from other batteries. The forts are slackening their fire. The top of the tower of Fort Pharos has been carried away and many guns have been dismantled on that and other forts. The flag of Geneva and the red cross is flying over the hospital in the city. The Dutch and Greek flags are hoisted over their respective consulates. At the beginning of the bombardment immense excitement was visible. Crowds of people were seen wending their way toward the palace. The streets are now deserted, the people having fled or taken refuge in cellars. There are no signs of a surrender so far.

SILENCING THE FORTS.

LONDON, July 11.—A telegram from the Eastern Telegraph company's steamer, Chiltern, sent at 11:15 this morning, says the bombardment still continues and the forts are gradually being silenced. The forts are suffering severely from a disastrous fire from the Alexandria, Superb and Temeraire.

THE SUEZ CANAL BLOCKADED.

LONDON, July 11.—A dispatch to the Lloyds from Port Said states that the British consul there, by order of Admiral Seymour, has stopped ships from entering the Suez canal.

OPENING FIRE.

LONDON, July 11.—Admiral Seymour telegraphs as follows: "Ships opened fire at 7 o'clock."

ADA GOES UP.

LONDON, July 11, 1 p. m.—A dispatch received from Alexandria says that the magazine Ada has been blown up.

PORT SAID TO BE OCCUPIED.

LONDON, July 11.—A private telegram from Port Said states that the French consul has ordered the embarkation of French subjects. The occupation of Port Said is expected to take place to-day.

THE SUEZ CANAL.

PARIS, July 11.—The agent of the Suez canal telegraphs De Lesseps that he has written the naval commanders protesting against the action of the British consul at Port Said in preventing vessels entering the canal as a violation of its neutrality and declaring the company will hold the British government responsible. The whole staff of the canal remain at their posts.

ADA'S SITUATION.

ALEXANDRIA, July 11.—Fort Ada, the magazine which was blown up, is located close to the vice royal palace, outside the harbor.

FOUR FORTS BLOWN UP.

ALEXANDRIA, July 11.—The fire fleet commands the railway to Cairo. Up to noon four forts in all were blown up. No casualties to the fleet are discernible.

THE FORTS ON THE SITUATION.

CONSTANTINOPLE, July 11.—Lord Dufferin, the British ambassador, notified the Porte Monday of Admiral Seymour's intention to bombard the forts if Arabi Pasha remained obstinate. The Porte, the same day, notified the British ambassador that it would not permit the bombardment.

act would constitute a grave infraction of the sovereign rights of the sultan, and it was expected the British government would order Admiral Seymour to abstain.

THE DAY'S ACTION ENDED.

ALEXANDRIA, July 11.—6:50 p. m.—Action is finished for this day. The casualties on the English side, are forty wounded. None killed.

A PROMOTED PASHA.

CONSTANTINOPLE, July 11.—Said Pasha, formerly prime minister, has been reappointed to that office in succession to Abdurrahman Pasha.

IRON CLADS HIT.

ALEXANDRIA, July 11.—Admiral Seymour recommenced the attack on the Fort of Gubarie and the harbor forts in the morning. The small effect of eighty-one ton and other heavy guns on the earthworks caused some disappointment in the fleet. The Invincible had four men wounded. The Inflexible was hit five times.

GRANVILLE'S GAME.

LONDON, July 11.—In the house of lords this afternoon, Granville said the bombardment of Alexandria did not constitute a declaration of war against the allied powers, as the government is not in alliance with the military despotism, now the de facto ruler of Egypt.

An Old Fashioned Hanging.

(By Telegraph to the Sentinel.) ST. LOUIS, July 11.—A special from Greensboro, N. C., says that a Clinton special reports that Philip Haison was hanged there this afternoon for the murder of Henry Sellers. A great crowd was in town and followed the condemned man to the scaffold. An old fashioned trap and cross beam were erected on the hill side in the suburbs of town. Haison never flinched, and died game. The drop was over five feet. Six thousand people were present. No trouble occurred.

After Her Papa's Wealth.

ST. LOUIS, July 11.—Mary Eglington Barr, only daughter of Rev. D. Eglington Barr, a well known Episcopal minister recently deceased, filed suit to-day to set aside her father's will. She alleges that under the influence and diseased mind, through intemperance and use of opiates, Dr. Barr bequeathed nearly all his property to charitable institutions, not leaving his daughter a penny. She has brought suit against the executor, Ex-Judge Wickham, chancellor of Episcopal diocese of Missouri.

The Situation at South Chicago.

(By Telegraph to the Sentinel.)

SOUTH CHICAGO, July 11.—Everything is quiet at the mills of the Calumet iron and steel company, although large crowds have gathered around the depot awaiting the arrival of trains. Preparations are being made to start up three of the sixteen furnaces with non-union men. The officers of the company are here, and there is a large force of police on hand, about fifty special being sworn in. Union men claim they will not make any trouble.

The Freight Blockade at New York.

(By Telegraph to the Sentinel.)

NEW YORK, July 11.—There is no change in the condition of the freight handlers strike. Railroad companies declare they are disposing of the freight received about as fast as formerly, and the new hands are rapidly becoming skilled at the work. Shipping was light this morning. Committees from the different German societies are engaged in visiting the different piers, persuading their fellow countrymen from working against the strikers.

Dropped His Man.

(By Telegraph to the Sentinel.)

CINCINNATI, July 11.—A Parkersville, Ky., special says that John Rawie yesterday shot and killed his nephew, John Lamb. Rawie and Lamb had a quarrel and the former ordered the latter to leave his premises, when Lamb cocked a rifle he had in his hands. Rawie immediately fired with fatal effect.

Nine Bandits Killed.

(By Telegraph to the Sentinel.)

ST. LOUIS, July 11.—A Mexican dispatch says that a part of second corps of gens d'armes fought the bandits under Manuel Games, near La-medilla Luna, in Jalisco yesterday. Manuel and Jose Games, the leaders, were killed.

A Duel That Meant Death.

(By Telegraph to the Sentinel.)

ST. LOUIS, July 11.—A special from Matamoros, Mexico, says that Captain Alvera and Major Cardova, officers of the second regiment, fought a duel at San Luis Potosi, yesterday. The former was killed on the spot and the latter died soon after he was removed from the field.

A Reservoir on the Rampage.

(By Telegraph to the Sentinel.)

LEBANON, Ohio, July 11.—Nearly all the household furniture of the four houses swept away by the floods in Turite creek last evening is ruined. One colored woman, who has been sick for some time, died upon being told that the reservoir had broke. People are searching along the banks of the stream to-day for the lost furniture.

LOCAL LINES.

The Wabash pay car will be here next Thursday.

A rush of work compels the Wabash shops to run at night.

The decision in the canal nuisance case was reserved until to-morrow.

Wabash passenger engine 22 is being repaired. She will pull the pay car into the city.

We are glad to notice Hon. R. C. Bell on our streets again after a severe sickness of two weeks.

Mrs. Geo. Renner and sister, Miss Laura Crouse, returned yesterday from a visit to Lima, Ohio.

Miss Mary Niblick, Miss May Gloss and Miss Amelia Niblick, of Decatur, are in the city visiting friends.

C. F. Lape and Tom Barrett, of Wabash, went to Andrews to-day to superintend work on boilers there.

Platt J. Wise is at Indianapolis canvassing his chances for the nomination for clerk of the supreme court.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Smith, of Indianapolis, are in the city, the guest of Dink Trentman. They will remain a week.

We regret to learn of the illness of A. Aronson, of the Golden Eagle clothing store, who is confined to his residence.

One day last week Hon. A. P. Edgerton found on his farm, at Hicksville, a horned toad, very rare. It is preserved in alcohol.

Coroner Wheelock, as we go to press, is taking testimony in the case of Flora Ryan, shot by some unknown person, July Fourth.

Indications for the lower lake regions and upper Miss. valley are: fair weather, westerly winds, stationary or lower temperature, higher pressure.

S. M. and T. E. Dougherty, of New York state, are in the city to-day on their way to Wisconsin. Miss Ada Oppenheim, of Bluffton, accompany them.

W. G. Neff, candidate for the nomination of secretary of state, is in the city to-day shaking hands with his many friends. Mr. Neff is very popular in this county.

Sheriff Cosgrove received a telegram this afternoon stating that a bay horse was stolen last night from Mr. Groves, of Bluffton. The thief and animal came this way.

At Pottstown, Pa., Thursday evening, Geo. W. Breck, the Wabash ticket agent, will be married to a very estimable young lady. After an extensive wedding tour he will return to this city.

The Celestial who keeps the laundry at 131 Calhoun street was robbed last night of $6 in money and a gold watch taken from his vest. Burglars effected an entry. The Chinaman was dreaming of the flowery land and heard nothing.

A few days ago Sam. B. Sweet, of the Wabash, received a letter from Harry Templar, at Washington, containing Guiteau's autograph, a shred of the rope with which he was hung, and a piece of the coffin trimming. Sam proudly shows the relics to his friends.

Yesterday afternoon Deputy Marshal Limecooly recovered a costly Knights Templar sword, which was sold to a party in Frenchtown by Hutchinson, one of the gang of sneak thieves captured yesterday morning. The sword bears the name of "J. P. Evans," and was evidently stolen by Hutchinson.

Yesterday afternoon nearly a repetition of the famous New York car hook tragedy took place on a Jefferson street car. A party of ball players were on the car, and the hook was used to pull the car out of a jam.

interfered and struck at one of the young men with his car hook, the murderous weapon grazing the man's head. A companion of the assaulted base ballist jumped on the conductor and gave him such a drubbing that he is unable to be on duty to-day.

Saturday night, in Tippecanoe lake, near Warsaw, Loren Shull, a farmer, landed a mammoth spoon bill sturgeon or paddle fish in a gill net. The fish reached here to-day and will be stuffed by Charles Stockbridge and placed in Max Lade's museum. Its weight is 151 pounds and it measures six feet two inches in length. This species of fish is usually found in the Ohio and Mississippi rivers, and its classical appellation is polydon spatula. There are two specimens only preserved in the British museum in London. Another fish of the same variety was landed from this lake weighing 108 pounds.

Arrest of the Monroeville Burglars.

Yesterday evening, two suspicious looking fellows were arrested at Monroeville. They are believed to be the fellows who broke into the stores of Heller and Carballey & Freese and blew the safes. Ed Gibford, of A. D. Brandriff, is subpoenaed as a witness. He sold some unknown parties steel drills.
